Our unique Leadership Development program provides you with skills, experience and ongoing mentoring in a safe, supportive environment as well as the opportunity for you to be remunerated for your contribution.

Leadership training begins with an initial four-day residential program where distractions and worries are left behind. This unique Leadership program is part of skills & theory-based, part experiential and part personal development.

Leader candidates are taken out of their ordinary lives which opens them to new experiences, new ways of being and an innovative and effective leadership model. This part of the training is a stand-alone process and whilst there are many similarities between our Men's Leadership program and our Women's Leadership program there are important differences too.

Our men's Leadership Training program provides opportunities for ongoing mentoring and leadership experience through our Pathways to Manhood and YoungSTARS programs.

Graduation and the number of camps required to achieve this depend on the individual. As a Pathways Leader, you will be remunerated for Leading programs.

Men! Brothers!

It is time to release your inner Warrior from the Shadows.

For too long the Energy of Anger has been misdirected, abused, diminished and feared. As a result, its gifts and purpose have been hampered and clarity, decisiveness, empowered actions, boundaries and respect are lacking in our community.

You are invited to come on a 6-week journey with a group of up to 12 people who identify as male. We set out with the intention to change the individual, associated internal story around the Energy of Anger from foe to friend and dare to experience the depth of our benevolent power.

We will meet on Monday nights, starting on the 29th of October at 7 pm sharp and conclude at 10 pm. Every week we explore and embody the Energy of Anger through our physical, mental and emotional bodies while staying present with what arises in the process. The journey concludes on 3rd December 2018.

Gero von Aderkas and Wayne Starkey are space-holders for this Rage Club journey and have both been involved with Men's Work for many years.

The origin of Rage Club lies in the lineage of Possibility Management, a body of work developed in Germany – you can read more here:

Please get in touch if you have any questions or follow your YES and book your place.

An initiated man ceases to look for his purpose – he recognises he himself AS purpose and he has learned how to vibrate this purpose into the world.

And he no longer looks for love outside himself, knowing he IS love itself. An initiated man knows how to vibrate this wholeness with his brothers and sisters, has dropped competition, and places himself at the gates of LIFE and calls other men to stand with him.

He has initiated into the Feminine Mysteries as well as Masculine Presence. He can fly with the eagles of perception, vision and clarity and bring the heights from cosmos, and he can descend to the fire of his dragon, the depths of embodiment and the dark light of his own soul.

He is twice-born and an avatar of the emerging civilization. To be so he must pass through inner portals, from the heights of consciousness to the depths of matter, right through his balls to the earth, and back again transmitting the life he is into the world.

This journey requires the courage to be yourself, to give up waiting, to cease victim and blame games, and to end projection onto women and external authority. Life is no longer a plan pushed into the world but flows through you as power from the Void and the womb of life, blessed by the sacred marriage within. You become a transmission of this life force.

I believe that we all know, always! We all know what is right or not for us, We all know what is our core truth of this moment.

I also believe that there is a common direction for all of us, that there is a flow that works for a Greater Good. That we are all part of something bigger that wants to work in harmony with all of us.

When facing any choice, there may be many voices in our heads: You can choose what serves you, depending on your interests of the moment, or you can choose what your entire being (and the world!) is longing for you to choose!

I call this wisdom: the inner compass! Everyone has access to it, and through time it's been given many names: God, the Heart, quantum field of consciousness, divine intuition, etc.

The problem is that this compass tends to be out of tune. There are other voices trying to weight in the balance: possible outcomes, profit, what others will think, how it goes with my beliefs and personality, etc. They are all calculation of the mind!

Truth is, our skills to calculate what is the best choice, depending on our past experiences and present desires, will never be as good as the wisdom of the Inner Compass.

Concretely, when we listen to the individual mind, we rarely have a real satisfaction out of it. It may make us happy for a little while as we enjoy the sense of control and manifesting, having what we wanted. But it doesn't last and honestly, it is quite shallow.

In return, when we follow this compass, regardless to what is the choice, regardless to the rationality of it and the possible imagination of where it will lead us, there is an immediate sense of fulfilment, a joy emerging from within. This is the experience of being aligned and following one's deeper truth.

WHAT?

This workshop is the result of my personal experience over 17 years, my practices to tune in my Heart with my Head in order to always know my deeper truth! I will share parts of my journey and we will experience together the tools I've been creating or embracing for many years.

It is created in order to offer a concrete sense of this inner compass and it will let you go with personal practices to test and apply in your life in order to develop a more steady and clear connection with your core wisdom, your Heart, your Inner Compass!

Engage and enjoy growth and expansion from informative and explorative workshops, eat together, connect in a tribal union and have a whole lot of fun in the process.

The experience will be one of openness, warmth, fun, love and collaborative togetherness.

This event will be a combined offering. 2018 Menergy Attendees will have the opportunity to join us for the full day or just for the 4.30 pm – 8.30 pm dinner and social gathering. This will be an opportunity to reconnect with your fellow Menergy brothers on our special island location.

A Call to MEN! Head, Heart & Balls!

One of the things most missing on the planet is healthy, initiated men who know how to stand together and help birth a civilisation where the masculine and feminine energies are fully honoured, integrated and celebrated. Our future depends upon it. Like all transformations, it begins as an inside job – offering ourselves to the evolutionary fires of initiation so that we become what we seek to bring into the world. This is the sacred journey of the modern spiritual warrior.

Old styles of masculine leadership are failing. The emerging leaders are not the ones who think they know where we are going. They have already arrived. Both the king and queen archetypes are fully embodied in them so that the future naturally unfolds from their hearts. They can stand for the whole because they are whole. During these five days, you will go through a series of experiential journeys designed to support you in initiating yourself into that wholeness.

This event is for men who are already engaged deeply with their soul work, their emotions, heart and their sexuality.

This is integration work.

If you are a man who has already gone deep into masculine archetype work, this goes deeper. This looks at the core underlying issues that lay at our base. The issues that we as men disconnect from and create trouble and issues in our business, personal and relationship life.

This is an initiation journey that shifts your entire world.

Come with an open mind.

Come with a deeply loving heart ready to immerse as a community of sacred brothers.
